

Chosen People Global Ministries in Russia

Messianic ministry begins in Russia in 1990 after the communist regime fell down. Since that time many Jewish people came to faith in Yeshua due to tremendous revival.

In 1999 we started new messianic congregation “Kehilat Yeshua” in Moscow

Aleph course

Helping old Jews with medicines and humanitarian aid

Messianic Jewish Congregation "Kehilat Yeshua"

Passover seder

Bar mitzva

Weekly Shabbat services

Concerts of Jewish music

Bible and Hebrew studies

In 2005 we started new Messianic congregation “Beit Hallel” in south-east of Moscow

Media projects for reaching Jewish people

Monthly Messianic Newsletter “Shalom Aleyhem” for Jewish people

Messianic Jewish Books in Russian language

First Messianic Russian speaking On-line Radio “Mashiah Info”

Messianic Newspaper “Shoresh” (The Root) for Christian believers

Conferences for Messianic Believers

Joint celebration of Purim 2008 of five Messianic congregations of Moscow

Meeting of Messianic leaders of West region Russia (St.Petersburg, Vyborg and Moscow), November 2008

Meeting of Messianic leaders of Ukraine (Kharkov, Poltava, Kiev, Mariupol, Khust, Chernigov), Feb 2009

First Moscow Messianic Leaders Conference 2004

Training seminar for new Messianic leaders July 2009

Because of the interaction between ministries “Celebrate Messiah” (Australia) and “Beit Sar Shalom” (Germany) in the Far East of Russia, we decided to hold a seminar on Jewish evangelism in Moscow in July 2009. At the seminar will come representatives of Far East region (Yuzhno-Sakhalinsk, Vladivostok, Birobidzhan, Blagoveschansk, Komsomolsk-na-Amure), Siberia (Novosibirsk, Kemerovo, Novokuznetsk, Norilsk), Ural region (Perm), South region (Krasnodar, Rostov-na-Donu) and West region (Moscow and Vyborg).

Jewish population in Russia

The estimated numbers of the Jewish population in Russia vary from several hundred thousands to 3 million people. The liberal criteria adopted in Russia enable its leaders to estimate the minimal sizes of congregation at 1,3-1,5 million people. (Russian Jewish Congress)

in the future

Our plans:

- 1. Recruiting and training leaders for successful ministries
- 2. Planting new messianic congregations allover Russia and CIS republics
- 3. Setting-up Messianic Jewish Center in Moscow
- 4. Providing messianic materials, media and education